Downtown River Plaza Project

FREE and open to the public!

8:30-10 a.m. Thursday, April 19
 Neosho County Community College Auditorium
 900 E. Logan St., Ottawa

Doug Kinsinger

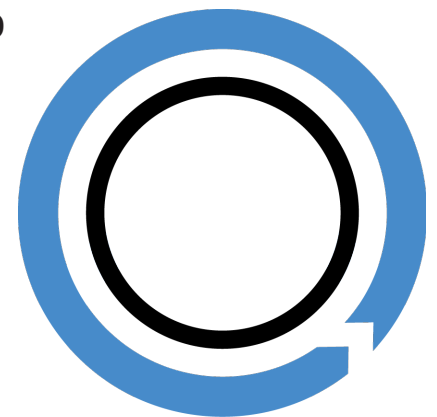

John Coen

The vision of the Onward Ottawa campaign leadership is to develop a pavilion and park venue between First and Second streets, facing Walnut Street.

The presentation will include:

- The process Onward Ottawa has used to help develop consensus for a desired initiative to improve our community.
- An overview of the multi-phased master plan and capital campaign plans to fund this public/private sector partnership.

About the presenters:

Doug Kinsinger brings more than 35 years of experience and leadership in chambers of commerce and economic development organizations working with the public and private sectors. He has raised tens of millions of dollars for all sizes of communities. Kinsinger is now co-owner of Opportunity Funding after building a strong reputation in fundraising during his long successful career in the non-profit sector.

John Coen is a lifelong community member of Franklin County and after his graduation from Kansas State University, has served the area on many boards and organizations, including Ransom Memorial Hospital, Ottawa University and USD 290 School Board. He joined the Chamber staff as president/CEO in September 2012 and has made community consensus a large part of his personal goals.
